

Hope to see you at the Fair!

March 12 - 14, 2019

Universal Logistics will have two representatives at the upcoming London Book Fair (March 12-14): Chris Barnard, Vice President – Projects & Market Development and Andrew Doick, Business Development – International. Contact Chris or Andrew if you would like to arrange a meeting.

Universal Logistics is a leading supplier of international freight, trucking and customs brokerage services for the North American publishing industry, with over 100 book industry clients and a proven track record stretching back to 1949. In addition, for over 20 years, we have been the Book and Periodical Council's recommended customs broker and international freight forwarder.

Universal Logistics' freight experts, based in London, New York, Hong Kong and Toronto, offer specialized industry leading freight and customs brokerage services for the book industry. Ask about our combined truck freight and U.S. or Canadian clearance services as well as our weekly consolidations from the UK and China to the U.S. and Canada, the ideal option for publishers seeking a North American solution from a logistics provider with offices on both sides of the border.
